Meridian Little Theatre January 8th - 12th, 2024

The CenterStage of Meridian Little Theatre is anxiously awaiting your arrival at this year's presentation of Finding Nemo Jr.!

Reminders:

Please make every attempt to be on time, especially if you are scheduled for the 8:30 performance. We have plays scheduled for 10:00, 11:30, and 1:00.

Please acquaint your students with basic theatre etiquette. All students must remain seated during the performance. It is OK to laugh at the funny parts of the play and applaud at the conclusion. Flash photography or talking during the performance is a major distraction to all and might keep someone else from enjoying the play. No food or drinks are allowed in the theatre, and cell phones must be turned off, as they will interfere with the sound system.

We look forward to seeing all of you at Meridian Little Theatre for Finding Nemo Jr. All of the students, as well as the committee volunteers, have been working hard to make this a presentation that you will enjoy and remember.

All of the cast members are school age students ranging from kindergarteners to high school seniors. It is possible that students from your school are in the cast!

A summer Youth Workshop is also offered at MLT. Watch for announcements regarding registration.

HURRY HURRY HURRY!!!
